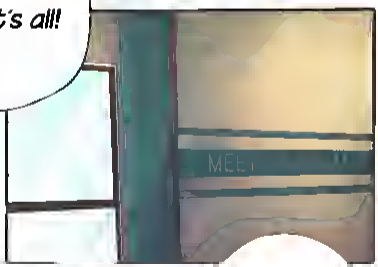
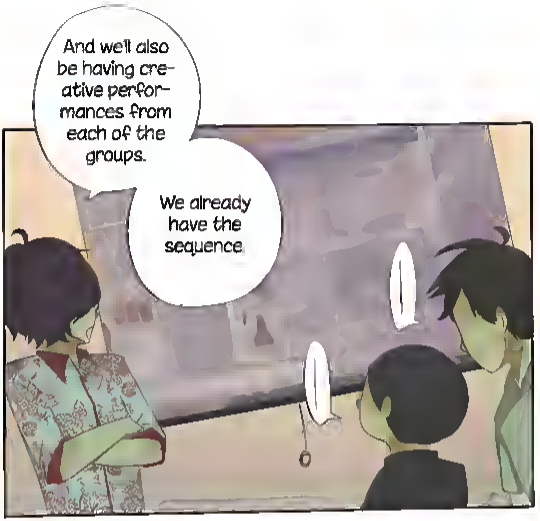
That's all!

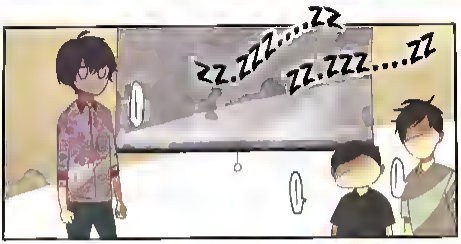


That's the rundown for the event



And we'll also be having creative performances from each of the groups.
We already have the sequence.

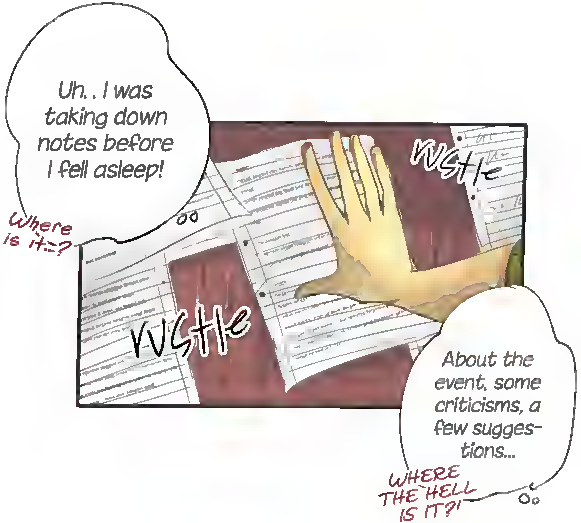
I guess that's it. What do you think, team leader?
zz...zz...zz



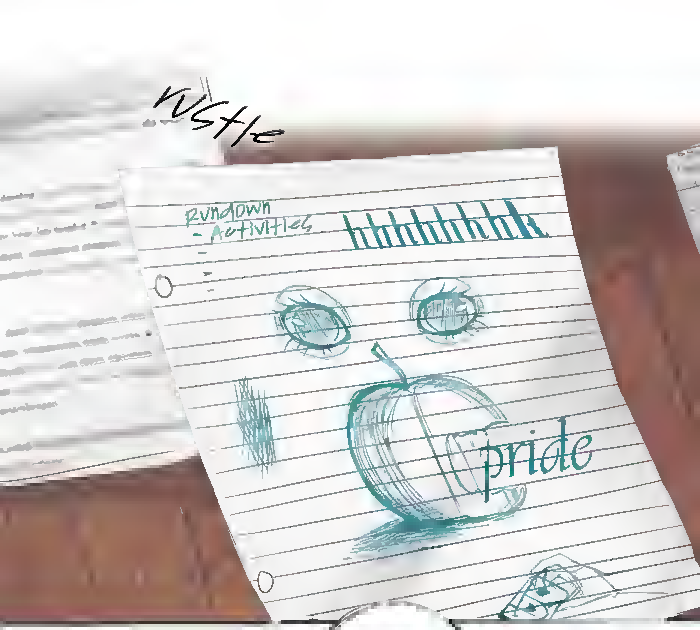
zz.zzz....zz
zz.zzz....zz

LEADER!
HUH?!

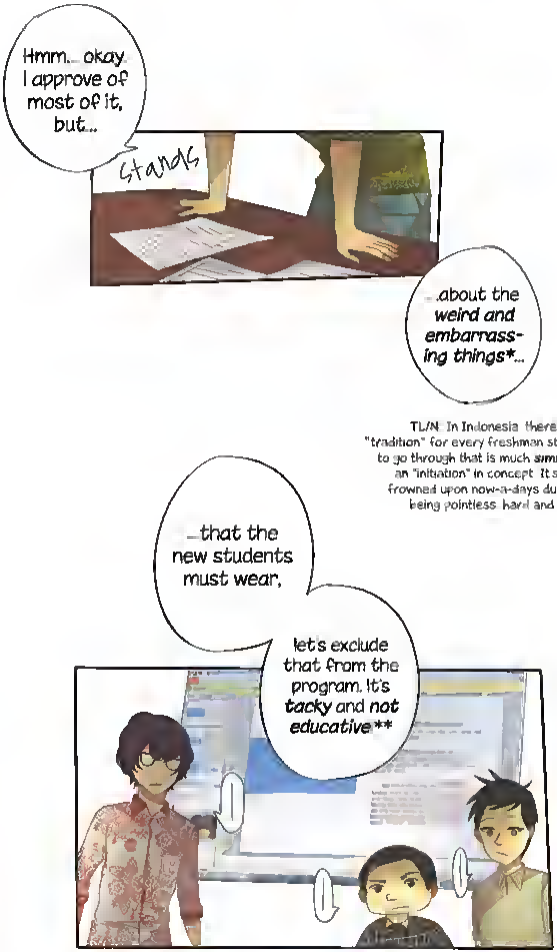
Were you sleeping the whole time?
Silence
...
DON'T TELL ME YOU WEREN'T PAYING ANY ATTENTION?
I was.
HOLY SHIT!
CRAP! WHAT WERE THEY TALKING ABOUT?!



Uh.. I was taking down notes before I fell asleep!
Where is it..?
About the event, some criticisms, a few suggestions...
WHERE THE HELL IS IT?!



AH! Here it is...



Hmm... okay. I approve of most of it, but...
stands
...about the *weird and embarrassing things...
...that the new students must wear,
let's exclude that from the program. It's tacky and *not educative

TL/N: In Indonesia there is this "tradition" for every freshman student to go through that is much similar to an "initiation" in concept. It's been frowned upon now-a-days due to it being pointless, hard and tiring.

I suggest that...
...it's better if we change it into a more productive activity.
Like, ask the new students to bring their old books,
and we'll donate them to dropouts.
Serious
The more books they bring, the more points they win.

I didn't mean it like that...
My doctor once said that we can control and change our own moods.
Urgh...
I thought that eating lunch together,
or maybe going somewhere else might help lift your mood up.

"Control moods"?
"Go somewhere else"?
HMMM
Y-Yes! Going to a place that can make you feel calmer and more at ease...
Like a coffee shop?
